

Intertidal Crabs

Long-eyed Crabs

Macrophthalmus

- are muddy brown in colour
- have oblong bodies, perfect for retreating sideways into burrows
- claws are equal sized
- claws have a “tooth” on each claw
- are eaten by wading birds

