

Spiders

Huntsman Spider

Isopeda Species

- The juveniles are bright green to match their leafy habitat
- Adult's body colour is black and hairy
- They protect their egg sacks, some even carry them on their backs
- Their natural home lies beneath the bark of trees
- For food they depend on large insects including flies, moths and beetles
- They will bite and produce localized pain

